POST OFFICE UPDATE

The Post Office does not have an official open date at the time of this newsletter, however it is in the final steps before opening! Watch the City of Hartland Facebook page to see when the mail will be officially brought over. Currently, we are hoping to have everything up and running in the first half of April, but that is subject to change.

CITY BRUSH DUMP SITE NEW POLICY

Due to ongoing issues of illegal dumping at the City Dump Site north of town, the City will now be locking the site when not in use. Keys will be available for purchase from the City Clerk's office at the cost of $10 per copy; this is the cost the City experienced to have multiple copies made. These keys are available to Hartland City and Township residents ONLY and must be purchased during office
