Others in Attendance: Raymond Toot, Nancy Toot, Tyler Pederson, Frank Nolan, Linda Pederson, Linda Johannsen, Judy Hendrickson, Brandon Flatness.

Mayor Kelly Routh called the meeting to order at 6:30 pm.

Motion to approve the agenda, minutes from the council meeting on February 1st, and the accounts payable was made by Megian, seconded by Jackie; motion carried.

Public Input:

-No new issues at this time.

Fire Dept.:

-No new issues at this time.

City Maintenance:

-Andy washed the Community Center walls with Mr. Clean without much change. He will try one more cleaning product before repainting if the stains from the furnace do not come off.

City Clerk Updates:

-The Fee Schedule will be corrected to reflect the current cost of fire calls at $1,000. The Council did not make any changes to the Fee Schedule.

-Regarding the "adopt a planter" concept, Linda Pederson will take the planter by the Bank, Ginger Fonza will take the planter by the Salon, Kelly and Lori Routh will take a planter, and Judy Hendrickson will take the Gazebo area. The 4-H kids will be happy to do the planting and will be hosting a plant sale which the City will purchase flowers from.

-IPS Solar has contacted the City for a lease agreement to use the City owned Pond Road to build a solar farm North of the City. More details about the project are needed for the Council to move forward with a decision.

-A&S Stores purchased Nielsen's Cenex and applied for a tobacco license, effective March 15th 2021 – March 14th 2022.

Council Concerns:

-Frank Nolan is in contact with a real estate lawyer to get more information about the City owned property near his property that he is looking to get an easement for. The Council will make a decision based on the information provided by his real estate lawyer.

-Due to payroll issues, Brooke Olson will not be a signer on the City Operating account. Jackie made a motion to have herself as the second cosigner for the Operating account, motion seconded by Megian; motion carried. Signers on all City owned accounts are as follows: Treasurer Allyson Olson, Councilman Megian Bell, and Councilman Jackie Schlaak.

Mayor Concerns:

-No new issues at this time.

Miscellaneous:

-Next meeting is Monday, April 5th at 6:30 pm.

-Warren motioned to adjourn the meeting at 6:55 pm, Jackie seconded; motion carried.

Brooke Olson, Hartland City Clerk
