

Monday, November 6th

Hartland City

In Attendance: Molly Sickels, Jackie Schlaak, Kelly Routh, Andy Flatness, Brooke Olson, Allyson Olson

Absent: Matt Eustice, Kyle Reed

Others in Attendance: Karen Badje, Judy Hendrickson, Jan Kalbow, Sharon Olson, Gage Flatness, Brandon Flatness,

Mayor Kelly Routh called the meeting to order at 6:30 pm.

Motion to approve the agenda, minutes from the council meeting on October 2nd, and the accounts payable was made by Molly, seconded by Jackie; motion carried.

Public Input:

-Santa Claus Day: December 3rd 5:00-6:00 in the Community Center

Fire Dept.:

-No billable calls

City Maintenance:

-The new generator is going to be hooked up in the next few weeks at the lift station, with a cost of about $2,500

City Clerk Updates:

-Special Assesment Orders are due November 30th. Water bill accounts with a balance higher than $150 as of November 15th will have their balance assessed to the property's taxes.

-503 Main St assessed $250 for ordinance violations, as well as delinquent water balance.

-Quickbooks is raising their rates to about $1,500 / year. Doing payroll through ARO Accounting instead of Quickbooks will cost only $600 / year. The council agrees to move payroll to ARO Accounting instead of Quickbooks.

Council Concerns:

-A reminder that it is unlawful to move snow off of ones property onto another will be put in the newsletter.

-The City will begin fining people who are parked on the street when snow needs to be plowed. Pictures of the car and license plate will be taken and a $50 violation bill will be sent to the property owner.

Mayor Concerns:

-NA

Miscellaneous:

-Next meeting is Monday, December 4th at 6:30 pm.

-Molly motioned to adjourn the meeting at 7:05 pm, Jackie seconded; motion carried.

Brooke Olson, Hartland City Clerk